1879: The fine collection of Maori implements and curios belonging to the late Mr Peter Thomson was disposed of by art union⁷³ [This collection had been displayed publicly on several occasions. Some items were apparently retained by the family and donated to the Otago Museum on the death of Mrs Thomson in 1925].
1879: £20 [collected from members of Field Naturalists Club] was expended .. in the purchase of a tombstone for the late Mr P. Thomson.⁷⁴

Peter married Elizabeth Watson MacKENZIE on 14 Jun 1848 in Edinburgh, Scotland,² daughter of John MacKENZIE (shopman in Leith) and Sarah BROWN. Elizabeth was born on 6 Mar 1824 in Tain, Rosshire, Scotland,³ died on 3 Nov 1862 in Otago Heads, NZ⁴ at age 38, and was buried in The Kike cemetery, Otago Heads. Additional detail on the MacKenzie family is included in In search of our Edinburgh Thomsons page 23.⁷⁵

The spelling of Elizabeth's surname has varied in the records, but MacKENZIE is preferred here as this is how Peter wrote it in the Morison family bible.

The family lived at 5 Roxburgh Place in 1851, the address Elizabeth gave in the marriage record. She may have been living there in anticipation of her marriage.

Peter and Elizabeth had 2 sons and a daughter:

Two years after Elizabeth's death Peter married Mary McNAIR on 20 Dec 1864 at house of Robert Gillies, Park St, Dunedin.⁷⁰ Mary was born about 1835 in Scotland, said to be the daughter of Duncan McNAIR and Margaret BEITH. Mary died on 7 Dec 1925 in Dunedin,¹⁰ aged 91 years 4 months according to Morison family bible, and was buried with her husband and their daughter Grace on 9 Dec 1925 in Northern Cemetery Block 29 Plot 2.

- 1835: Mary's baptism has not been found, but Duncan, son of Duncan McNAIR and Margaret BEITH, who was christened at Glassary, Argyll, Scotland in 1830 may have been her brother. It has been suggested that the McNairs and Thomsons were related.
- 1864: Family legend is that Mary was sent from Scotland to be a new mother to Peter's children. Her first task was to locate them, for they had been fostered out.
- 1893: Living at Queen St, Dunedin with daughter Margaret. Both on Women's Suffrage roll.
- 1925: of 122 Queen St Dunedin, buried with her husband and their daughter Grace.

Peter and Mary had 3 sons and 4 daughters:

3. David Brown THOMSON (*Peter*¹) was born on 4 Nov 1852 in Edinburgh, Scotland,⁵ died on 29 Dec 1920 in Auckland, NZ⁷ at age 68, and was buried in Waikumete cemetery.

1852: a second son was traditionally named for mother's father, but David appears to have been named for mother's maternal grandfather, who would thus be David BROWN.

1861: aged 9 when the family emigrated

1862: aged 10 when his mother died, fostered out for 2 years till his stepmother arrived didn't get on with his stepmother and left home as soon as he left school disappeared for several years, but later visited his brother Murray.

1873: married in Dunedin, but shortly moved to Christchurch where his first family were born. The Stewart sisters said his widow came to Dunedin between 1927-1932, but Marion died in 1893. The visitor may have been David's daughter or daughter-in-law. The Stewarts had no knowledge of his second marriage.⁷¹

1879: Jul 29 Funeral of daughter of David Thomson, left his house in Barbados St (Star)

1880: 15 May declared bankrupt

1893: death of wife Marion, Bella, Marion, Ruby, & Ettie, brought up by their brother Peter⁸²

1919: Auckland West Electoral Roll - caretaker of 85 College Hill, wife Agnes, also dau Agnes

Occupation: bricklayer, tiler, slater, shingler

David married Marion AITKENHEAD on 25 Mar 1873 in Dunedin. Marion was born about 1853 in Bathgate, Scotland, died on 8 Oct 1893 in Christchurch, NZ³⁸ aged about 40, and was buried in Linwood cemetery, Christchurch, Block 31A plot 33 (of 195 St Asaph St).³⁹ This marriage has not been found in the NZ Marriages Index, neither could an Intention to Marry record be found, leading to a suspicion that the marriage date is a fiction.

Descendants of Peter THOMSON

David and Marion had 2 sons and 6 daughters:

15	i.	Peter George THOMSON 1874 - 1937	Refer to page 10
16	ii.	Isabella "Bella" THOMSON 1875 - 1940	Refer to page 11
17	iii.	Sarah THOMSON 1875 - 1875	Refer to page 11
18	iv.	Murray Gladstone THOMSON 1877 - 1940	Refer to page 11
19	v.	Sarah Clementina THOMSON 1878 - 1879	Refer to page 11
20	vi.	Marion THOMSON 1880 - 1950	Refer to page 11
21	vii.	Ruby THOMSON 1884 - 1963	Refer to page 11
22	viii.	Margaretta Janet Grace "Ettie" THOMSON 1885 - 1975	Refer to page 11

David married Agnes CHADWICK on 14 Jan 1893.⁵⁵ This marriage was possibly bigamous, assuming that his marriage to Marion had been registered, which may explain why David's middle name was omitted, as it also was from the registrations of the children of this marriage. Agnes was born about 1857, died on 30 Sep 1943 in Auckland,⁵⁶ aged about 86, and was buried in Waikumete cemetery, Auckland, RC Div C Row 16 plot 118, with her husband David.

Headstone: In loving memory of David Brown, husband of Agnes Thomson, died Dec 29 1920. RIP Also Agnes died Sep 30 1943 aged 86.

David had been accidentally killed at age 68, the coroner's verdict being "fracture of skull caused by being struck by the handle of a crane at which deceased was working." His death certificate was a curious mixture of fact and fiction. His father's name and occupation were correct, as was his mother's maiden name, though her first name was changed to Nora. His birthplace was given as Dunedin, not Edinburgh, and his first marriage and children were missing. Interestingly, he included the names of his 2 siblings among the children of the second marriage, leaving two Murray Thomsons, half brothers, unaware of each other's existence.

David and Agnes had 2 sons and 3 daughters:

23	i.	Ethel THOMSON 1893 - 1969	Refer to page 12
24	ii.	Agnes THOMSON 1894 - 1971	Refer to page 12

26	iv.	Thomas THOMSON 1899 - 1968	Refer to page 12
27	v.	Sarah THOMSON 1901 - 1990	Refer to page 12

4. Sarah Clementina THOMSON (*Peter*¹) was born on 19 Sep 1859 in St Andrews, UK,⁸ died on 21 Mar 1944 in Dunedin,⁹ at age 84, and was buried on 23 Mar 1944 in Northern Cemetery, with her husband and daughter Annie.

Sarah was young enough to accept her stepmother, and was very close to her half sisters. Sarah had a certificate on the wall commemorating 60 years as a Sunday School teacher. She was strictly opposed to alcohol and gambling, would not have a pack of cards in the house.

Sarah married John Duncan SCOTT (1860 - 1899) on 25 Dec 1884 at her father's home, Queen Street, Dunedin.⁶⁶ (refer SCOTT file for details of her married life and children.)
