Introduction

After much deliberation, I am advancing the thesis that all the Skipworth families of the Spilsby/Horncastle areas, were related as set out in the accompanying Overview chart, although I accept that evidence is lacking on some points.

First, I considered the names given to sons. John, Thomas, Samuel, William and George were the supposed brothers in the first generation, and these names were heavily used among the descendants. Now and again an obscure name taken from the Old Testament cropped up, such as Jabez, Manasseh, Esias and Ahijah. Samuel was also of this derivation one presumes.

Compare this with the Skipworths of North Lincolnshire. Their landmark was the name Philip which occurred in every generation, but never once in the Spilsby group. Samuel, so common among the Spilsby Skipworths, is not found among those around Caistor, nor have they ever used the more obscure names from the Old Testament. There are also differences of status, which lead me to wonder if the two groups have had separate origins.

There are no other nineteenth century Skipworth groups originating elsewhere in Britain, suggesting that these two have both derived their names from the aristocratic family of Skipwiths, which had their principal seat at South Ormsby, Lincolnshire, up till the seventeenth century. They in turn had taken their name from the Skipwith manor south east of York, which they acquired by the marriage of an ancestor to a Saxon heiress in the twelfth century. Further information on their history can be found in various editions of Burke’s Peerage, and in the book "A Brief Account of the Skipwiths ….. “ compiled by Fulwar Skipwith, 1867, available in the Society of Genealogists library, London. The meaning of Skipwith is given as “sheep farm” in surname dictionaries.

It is impossible to be sure how the Skipworth families came to acquire their surname, but it was almost certainly derived from the Lord of their Manor. When the manors held by the South Ormsby Skipwiths in the seventeenth century are plotted on a map, there is a remarkable coincidence with the villages where Skipworths appear in the 1600s.

No trace of the Spilsby/Horncastle Skipworths has been found earlier than about 1750. By that time the South Ormsby family had disappeared, but an offshoot had returned to Lincolnshire in the form of the Baronets Skipwith of Metheringham, near Horncastle. It is possible that the origin of these Skipworths is later, from the Metheringham Skipwiths, rather than from South Ormsby.

The spelling of the name is not particularly significant. Skipwith is the earlier spelling, but even in the Baronets’ families the Skipworth form appears and has apparently been allowed to stand unchallenged. By the nineteenth century the aristocratic Skipwiths and the lower born Skipworths could mostly be distinguished by spelling, give or take a few errors.

Setting aside the North Lincolnshire Skipworths, I looked for evidence that there is but one surviving extended family around Spilsby/Horncastle. Unfortunately, parish registers are practically the sole source for the early period, and it is obvious that they have not always been accurately maintained. There are gaps where entries appear to have been neglected, occasionally incorrect names can be recognised from other evidence, and it is not uncommon to find marriages or deaths of people whose baptisms are nowhere to be found. I am conscious that if the record were complete, the story might be different, but what follows is the best I can offer with the evidence available.

The proposed progenitor of these Skipworths is Thomas SKIPWORTH who married Alice EVISON at Irby in the Marsh on 16 April 1748. He is probably Thomas Skipworth buried aged 80 in 1795 in Little Steeping, making his estimated birth year 1715. His wife is probably Alice Skipworth widow aged 77, buried in 1800 at Little Steeping, making her estimated birth year 1723.
What evidence is there that John, Thomas, Samuel, William, Ann and George were all children of this couple?

(a) John [ancestor of the Halton Holegate Skipworths]:
- He was baptised in 1745 at Bratoft, parents Thomas and Alice. The problem here is the date of the marriage of Thomas to Alice EVISON, recorded as 1748 in the adjacent parish of Irby. However, the Irby register has been poorly maintained at this period. Whereas there were an average of 5 entries per annum from 1740-45, there were none between 1745 and 1747, 1 in 1748, then a single entry in 1758, then a single entry for 1763, after which the earlier pattern resumed. Those stray single entries may have been entered retrospectively, and the dates may not be reliable. Alice Evison would have been 22 at the time of John’s birth, judging from her burial record.
- The Bratoft register contains several EVISON entries, including the baptism of an Alice in 1723 who could be John’s mother, so perhaps Thomas and Alice took their son to his mother's parish for baptism.
- In 1773 John was resident at Irby, where Thomas and Alice had baptised their younger children, when he applied for a settlement certificate permitting him to move to Halton Holegate, his new wife’s parish.
- John has a link to his supposed brother William through William’s son Henry emigrating to Australia on the same ship that carried John’s grandson Augustus Frederick and family.
- John’s supposed brothers Thomas and William Skipworth were witnesses at his marriages.

(b) Thomas [ancestor of the Friskney Skipworths]:
- Could Thomas Skipworth, witness to John’s marriage in 1787 have been John’s father, and not his brother? Father would have been 72, and the choice of a younger man seems more likely. The name appears confidently written.
- We have no baptismal record for Thomas and he did not survive into the census period to state a birthplace, so there is no evidence from that quarter.
- Thomas had two surviving sons, George and William. George did not produce a Samuel among his sons, but William did, so there is some weak support from the naming evidence.
- In his marriage entry at Little Steeping in 1771 he is “Thomas Skipworth jnr”, suggesting that both father and son were resident at Little Steeping.

(c) Samuel [ancestor of Skipworths at West Ashby and Asgarby]:
- He settled at Halton Holegate and he married a Sylvester, both of which he had in common with his brother John.
- John Skipworth was a witness to Samuel’s 2 marriages in 1782 and 1801.
- We have no baptismal record for Samuel and he did not survive into the census period to state a birthplace, so there is no evidence from that quarter.
- In 1841 a Susanna Skipworth aged 80, probably Samuel’s widow, was living with John’s granddaughter, Eliza Atkinson #7 in this file, in Halton Holegate.

(d) William [ancestor of the Swaby Skipworths]:
- As explained above evidence links him to John through their descendants’ emigration.
- We have no baptismal record for William and he did not survive into the census period to state a birthplace, so there is no evidence from that quarter.
- He had a son and a grandson called Samuel.
- Little Steeping register contains burial entries: 1795 Thomas Skipworth aged 80, 1800 Alice Skipworth aged 77. About that time William’s children were baptised there, suggesting Thomas and Alice were probably living with or close to their son William.

(e) Ann:
- Ann daughter of Thomas and Alice Skipworth was baptised on 18 Apr 1769 at Irby in the Marsh. She married George VEARAH on 26 May 1784 at nearby Orby. George, a bachelor of Great Steeping signed the register, and Ann, spinster of the parish of Orby, made her mark. Witnesses John Ashlin and William Abraham suggest that Ann did not have relatives at Orby.
George,

George, son of Thomas and Alice, was baptised at Irby in the Marsh in 1761, when Alice Evison would have been 38 judging from her burial record (see above). This was 16 years after the marriage, not quite long enough for George to be a grandson, but useful in establishing that Alice’s fertility continued. It is unlikely that there was a 14 year gap in the family, supporting the idea that the sons Thomas, Samuel and William, whose baptisms are missing (having occurred in the period when Irby register was neglected), do belong here.

- It is unfortunate that this son, George, whose baptism is known did not survive, he was buried on 13 Jul 1766 at Little Steeping.

I shall leave to the individual chapters any necessary discussion regarding proof that the various grandchildren of Thomas and Alice are correctly placed.

We can sense a modicum of education and status in this family. They often signed their names rather than make a mark, and several made wills, even though their possessions were modest. A grandson was the parish clerk at Halton Holegate, until he moved away to become a Baptist Minister. Another grandson emigrated to Australia to improve his family’s prospects. With the advent of the railways several moved from agricultural pursuits to jobs as diverse as Station Inspector, Engine Driver, Booking Clerk and Level Crossing Keeper.

There were still however quite a few who remained agricultural labourers, and some for whom the Union [workhouse] was their final destination. With increasing survival rates of children through the early nineteenth century, resources had to be shared among larger families and individual wealth inevitably declined. For some, emigration provided an escape to a better life.

As this chapter is part of a wider study of Skipworths, I have not followed descendants of married daughters. Their inclusion is likely to have doubled the numbers of descendants. It was not uncommon for individuals to change their name in the course of their lives, adding a second Christian name or dropping one, or altering spelling. Where this has happened I have preferred to use the name they were known by in adulthood.

I have worked chiefly from the 10 yearly English census (1841, 1851 etc), matching those records to the births, deaths and marriages indexes, or to parish records. This has allowed me to place most individuals with reasonable confidence. For a few, guesses have been made as to their exact position in the family rather than ignoring them completely, but this has been acknowledged. As new evidence comes to hand their position may be changed. Contact with descendants has of course been invaluable, and I welcome all corrections and additions at the address below.

A note on spelling: I have followed modern maps in using the form “Halton Holegate” in this document, although “Holgate” was commoner in former times, and even “Holdgate” appears occasionally.

This document is a compilation of my own research augmented by contributions from a number of other family genealogists. I am extremely grateful for their generosity in sharing their knowledge and hope they will appreciate this file in return.

Two in particular deserve special mention. George F Skipworth of Mandurah, Western Australia, realised many years ago that the large and widely scattered families in Australia were in danger of losing touch with their ancestry and set about recording the details which he published in a small booklet. Glennis McDonald, also of Western Australia, has built on George’s work and has been most helpful in assisting me in the preparation of this paper.

First Generation

1. John SKIPWORTH of Halton Holegate, son of Thomas SKIPWORTH and Alice, was baptised on 14 Mar 1745 in Bratoft, Lincolnshire, UK and buried at age 78 on 28 Oct 1824 in Halton Holegate, Lincolnshire.

1745: The Bratoft register could be read as John Thos, or as Thos altered to John. The Bishop’s Transcript of this baptism gives the name as John.

1773: settlement document at Lincoln Archives: John Skipwith and his wife Sarah, currently residing in the parish of Irby, wanted to move to Halton Holegate. The document was a guarantee to the Halton Holegate church warden that Irby parish would take them back if they became a financial burden. The fact that John’s previous settlement was at Irby strengthens the suggestion that his parents were Thomas SKIPWORTH of Irby and Alice (EVISON).

1787: party to a document at Lincoln Archives by dissenters of Halton Holegate

"To the Right Rev, the Lord Bishop of Lincoln,

1812: farmer in Halton Holegate (bondsman for son James’ bastardy)

1812: witness at marriage of Mary SKIPWORTH and Richard PAGE at Halton Holegate. The bride may have been Mary, daughter of John’s brother Samuel, born 1784 in Halton Holegate, although the possibility of her being John’s daughter cannot be excluded.

John married Sarah SILVESTER on 9 Jun 1772 in Halton Holegate. She may be the Sarah SILVESTER baptised on 14 May 1732 in Halton Holegate, and mother of a bastard daughter Rebecca baptised 30 Mar 1760. Sarah’s burial entry has not been found.

John signed the register and Sarah made her mark, both of this parish, witnesses William Atkison and Thomas Atckin. John’s surname appears to have been changed from Skepeth to Skipworth, suggesting that the parish clerk was not familiar with the name.

John and Sarah had a son:

2 i. John SKIPWORTH 1773 - 1841 Refer to page 11

John next married Ann TURNER on 8 Aug 1782 in Halton Holegate. Ann’s burial not found. John and Ann signed the register, both of this parish. Witnesses Thomas Atckin and William Skipworth who made his mark. There were no known children of this marriage.

John next married Ann WHARFE on 5 Nov 1787 in Halton Holegate. She may be the Ann Wharfe baptised on 17 Feb 1754 in Halton Holegate, daughter of James Wharfe and Mary Trueblood. Ann was buried aged 75 on 26 Apr 1828 in Halton Holegate.

Marriage witnesses: Thomas Skipworth and Thomas Atckin, both signed. John’s brother Thomas marked his own marriage entry, so this witness may be John’s father. However there are other examples of individuals marking on one occasion, and signing on another, so we cannot rule brother Thomas out as the witness. Ann survived her husband by 3½ years, with an annuity of 10 guineas per annum.

John and Ann’s children were:

3 i. James SKIPWORTH 1793 - 1860 Refer to page 11
4 ii. William SKIPWORTH 1795 - 1862 Refer to page 12

The signatures on John’s 3 marriages appear to match, but John’s son’s signature (page 19) is quite similar. Both men regularly witnessed marriages in the 1820s and 30s.

Parents and possible siblings of John (#1) have been discussed in the Introduction
Second Generation (Children)

2. John SKIPWORTH junior of Halton Holegate (John 1) was born on 2 Jul 1773 in Halton Holegate, and baptised there on 26 Sep 1773. He was buried age 67 on 11 Apr 1841 in Halton Holegate. Administration Reference 1841/82

John was named as the eldest son in his father's will of 1824 (refer page 10)

1800 to 1841: cottager in Halton Holegate.

1838 Meeting of Spilsby Workhouse held 8 Nov 1838 John Skipworth to support his grandchildren, children of Mary[sic] Skipworth, Halton, his son transported.

labourer in most of the children's baptisms; land surveyor in George’s baptism

John married Jemima BILTON, on 14 Jan 1800 in Halton Holegate. She was born on 16 Dec 1777, and died on 11 Jan 1841 in Halton Holegate. The register records Francis Skipworth buried 15 Jan 1841 aged 63.

Jemima's birth date is from the family bible with no surname or place of origin. No baptism for Jemima BILTON has been found, and she may have been Jemima SANDS daughter of Elizabeth SANDS baptised on 21 Dec 1777, at Trusthorpe, Lincolnshire. [Baptism date matches birthdate in family bible.] Had Elizabeth been unmarried the register is likely to have stated "bastard," so it appears that Jemima’s father was deceased, mirroring the circumstances of Jemima’s own daughter’s baptism in 1799.

John Skipworth (junior) was a witness at the marriage of William Bilton and Jemima Sands on 10 Jan 1799 at Halton Holegate. The register records the baptism of Elizabeth daughter of Jemima Bilton on 27 Oct 1799, William having apparently died. John appears to have married the widow, and her daughter is recorded as Elizabeth Skipworth in the family bible. Jemima's grandson named Sands Skipworth supports this scenario.

5  i. Elizabeth SKIPWORTH 1799 - Refer to page 14
6  ii. John SKIPWORTH 1800 - 1873 Refer to page 14
7  iii. Eliza SKIPWORTH 1802 - Refer to page 15

3. James SKIPWORTH of Halton Holegate (John 1) was born about 1793 in Halton Holegate [calculated from 1851 census] and died on 30 Dec 1860 in Witham Marsh, Boston, about age 67.

1818: journeyman miller of Ringstead, Norfolk (the village next to where he was married).
He appears to have been learning the trade in Norfolk, later returning to Halton Holegate.
1820: miller in Halton Holegate
1822: labourer in Halton Holegate
1823-35 baker, shopkeeper in Halton Holegate
1824: named in his father's will, receiving freehold property (with bakehouse) at Halton Holegate then in his occupation (refer page 10 above).
1835: second marriage at St Botolph's, Boston, after which he enter the poultry trade in Boston, about 25 km from Halton Holegate.
1841: age 45, York St Boston, with Maria 35, George 10, James 5, Maria 2, Susannah 1
1851: age 58 poulterer of 135 Witham Marsh, Boston.
1860: witness to his death registration: Ann WILSON
James had a relationship with Ann HANDSLEY in 1812: 3 March, Bastardy Recognizance, mother Ann Handsley, singlewoman, putative father James Skipworth of Little Steeping, miller and baker. John Skipworth of Halton Holegate, farmer to be bondsman. Child will become chargeable to the parish of Thorpe next Wainfleet.7

James married Mary POTTER on 11 Mar 1818 in Holme next the sea, Norfolk, UK.9 Mary was born about 1790 and buried age 43 on 16 Mar 1834 in Halton Holegate.2

James and Mary’s children were:

17. John SKIPWORTH 1818 - 1899 Refer to page 21
18. Maria SKIPWORTH 1820 - Refer to page 21
19. Thirza SKIPWORTH 1822 -1844 Refer to page 21

23. William SKIPWORTH 1828 - Refer to page 22
24. George SKIPWORTH 1831 - 1898 Refer to page 22

James, widower, next married Maria SMITH on 2 Apr 1835 in St Botolphs, Boston,2 both parties signed the register. Maria was born about 1803 in Sutterton, Lincolnshire and died aged 64 in 1868 in Boston.

1861: age 57, head of household at Boston, next door to stepson Thomas, poulterer.

James and Maria’s children were:

25. James SKIPWORTH 1836 - 1875 Refer to page 23
26. Maria SKIPWORTH 1839 - Refer to page 23
27. Susanna Jemima SKIPWORTH 1840 - Refer to page 23

4. William SKIPWORTH of Halton Holegate (John 1) was born about 1795 in Halton Holegate, died in Louth, Lincolnshire,10 and was buried age 67 on 14 Jul 1862 in Halton Holegate.4 variously described as farmer or labourer of Halton in children’s baptisms

1824: youngest son in his father’s will, receiving “land in Fen Close now in his occupation”
1841: age 45 farmer at Halton Fenside with wife Mary and six children
1842: of Mablethorpe - marriage record of daughter Jane
1851: age 55 born Halton Holegate, farmer freeholder 6 acres Halton Holegate, 1 labourer
1862: age 67, Louth, in burial, which gives birth year 1795 agreeing with census estimate 1863: “of Louth” suggesting he may have moved to live with a relative at the end.

Will of William Skipworth of Halton Holegate, farmer
To my sons Henry Skipworth of Halton Holegate yeoman, William Skipworth of Barkstone, policeman, and my son-in-law Edward Dodds of Stickney, publican ... all my real estate 11 acres 1 rood etc. to be equally divided among my children.
The share of my daughter Jane Denniss to be paid to her for her separate use, first deducting £10 and the interest due to Thos Thimbleby of Spilsby [lawyer who witnessed the will] for which I am surety, and £10 which her husband Henry Denniss is endebted to me.
Signed with his mark 13 Sep 1861, Proved 16 Jan 1863, will of William Skipworth formerly of Halton Holegte, late of Louth. Effects under £100.10

Two William Skipworths were born in the 1790s in Halton Holegate, probably cousins.
1. son of Samuel and Rebecca, bapt 15 Aug 1791 at Halton Holegate.
2. son of John and Ann, mentioned in John’s will, born about 1795 (census)
The evidence is consistent with there being only one family descended from William of Halton Holegate and his wife Mary. John’s will indicates that his William had survived, there is no evidence regarding the death of Samuel’s William.

William’s will identifies his children Henry, William, Jane and Salome. There were at least two other surviving children, Ellen and Sophia. However, the estate was to be equally divided among his children, they did not have to be named to inherit.
William married Mary HERMAN on 25 Dec 1817 in Halton Holegate.² Both signed the register. Mary was born about 1800 in Candlesby. In 1841 she was age 40, 1851 age 51.

A Mary Skipworth witnessed the Thomas Askey/Elizabeth Bilton marriage in 1836. She was probably the Mary Skipworth buried at Halton Holegate, 4 Jun 1855, though both the burial record and the death registration give her age as 45, not 55.

William and Mary's children were:

31 i. Jane SKIPWORTH 1819 -  Refer to page 25
32 ii. Salome SKIPWORTH 1822 - 1894  Refer to page 25
33 iii. Helen/Elfen SKIPWORTH 1825 - 1880  Refer to page 25

Third Generation (Grandchildren)

5. Elizabeth BILTON SKIPWORTH (John ², John ¹) was baptised on 27 Oct 1799 in Halton Holegate.²⁵ She was Elizabeth, daughter of Jemima BILTON, born after the death of her father William BILTON, and adopted when John Skipworth married her mother. Her death is not recorded in the family bible.

1812: 10 Jan Apprenticeship Indenture Elizabeth Bitton aged 12 to John Skipworth the younger of Halton Holegate, yeoman. Attached certificate of baptism entry in register of Halton.³³

6. John SKIPWORTH of Billinghay (John ², John ¹) was born on 22 Oct 1800 in Halton Holegate,⁵ and baptised there on 24 Oct 1800.² He died age 73 on 12 Nov 1873 in Billinghay, Lincolnshire.⁷

1819: labourer of Halton in Edwin’s baptism
1828-1841: parish clerk Halton Holegate
1841: age 40 agricultural labourer at Fenside, in Halton Holegate
1845: labourer
1851: age 50, Particular Baptist - Minister of Chapel at Billinghay, with wife Ann, son Edwin 1861: age 60, born Halton Holegate, baptist minister of Billinghay, also visiting Mary Wood, widow aged 60, nurse - presumably because of Mary Ann’s recent confinement.
1861-1872: shopkeeper at Billinghay - PO Directories
1871: age 70, Baptist Minister at Billinghay with wife and 5 children at home
1873: of Billinghay, owned 3 acres 33 perches, annual worth £7 5s [Lincs Landowners]
1874: Will proved by Mary Ann, widow. £1500 Reference 1874/1/167

There seems to have been a strange distribution of money in this family. If John left £1500 it implies his shop at Billinghay was quite successful, together with his small-holding and his ministry. It is surprising then, to find his son John a pauper in 1891 and in the workhouse in 1901, and another son died in the workhouse 1909. It is also surprising that his widow’s estate amounted to only £19. Being 23 years younger than her husband she faced a long widowhood, for which one might have expected him to make provision.

John married Ann BELL on 12 Jan 1819 in Halton Holegate.² John signed, Ann marked. Ann was born about 1795 in Cumberworth, Lincolnshire and was buried aged 50 on 10 Jul 1854 in Billinghay.⁴ She was: 1841: age 45 1851: age 56

Their children were:

Eliza had a child:

51 i. Mary Ann SKIPWORTH 1823 -

Refer to page 30

Eliza married Thomas ROBINSON on 16 Mar 1824 in Halton Holegate.\(^2\) Eliza signed and Thomas marked.

Eliza later married Robert ATKINSON on 12 Apr 1830 in Halton Holegate.\(^2\) Robert signed and Eliza Skipworth marked the register.

1841 census: Robert Atkinson, 35 and wife Eliza, 35, were living with Jemima Atkinson 10 and Mary Robinson 15, one daughter from each marriage. Also in the household Susanna Skipworth aged 80, who was probably her great-uncle Samuel’s widow - refer introduction. Susanna was buried, aged 84, at Halton Holegate on 11 May 1842.

8. Augustus Frederick SKIPWORTH (John\(^2\), John\(^1\)) was born on 24 Jan 1804 in Halton Holegate,\(^5\) was baptised on 4 Oct 1807 in Halton Holegate,\(^2\) died on 1 Jan 1881 in Green’s Plains, South Australia\(^2\) at age 76, and was buried in Green’s Plains West cemetery.\(^12\)

1840: Emigration to South Australia, arriving 11 Mar 1840, with 6 children, on the sailing ship "Baboo". Their daughter Harriet died at sea, aged 4 months. Frederick is listed as a farm labourer, but this description may have been to qualify him for assisted passage. Also on board this sailing of Baboo were Henry and Jane Skipworth and family. This was probably Frederick's father's cousin, from Little Steeping. As often happened extended family groups emigrated together, hoping for mutual support.

Following their arrival in South Australia the family lived at Section 95, New Richmond Village, near Adelaide. It is related that "the first money they earned was from cutting down trees and making charcoal which they sold to sailing or coal burning ships in the harbour." Their objective was to secure as much land as possible for farming.

1849: The family, including eight children, travelled to Hobart on the Bride leaving on 12 April, then to New Zealand on the schooner Industry, arriving in Wellington at the end of May. Possibly the trip included making contact with his brother Albert Thomas? They stayed in New Zealand only a short time, seemingly deciding to return to South Australia and land they had acquired at Salisbury, some 20 miles north of Adelaide. This move would have been forced by the growth of Adelaide and the need to expand to provide opportunities for the elder sons, then up to 20 years of age. In Salisbury they combined farming and cartage work.5

1850: The family, including eight children returned on the brig Wild Irish Girl, departing Sydney 26 Feb, arriving Adelaide 10 Mar 1850.19

1865: A bible was presented to Frederick as he was leaving South Australia to go to Yorke Peninsula. Here Frederick recorded the names and dates of his parents, his 11 siblings, his wife, and his 12 children, probably copying dates from an earlier bible which has since been discarded. The bible is still held by family members in Western Australia.5

1865: Move to a property at Green's Plains West, east of Kadina, South Australia. The older sons, mostly married at that time, would have left home and gone their separate ways prior to this move. A plaque records: "The first wheat grown on Yorke Peninsula was on this section [section 900 of Kadina] in 1865 by Mr Augustus F Skipworth, Erected by Kadina Branch of National trust of S.A.".5

George has speculated on why Augustus Frederick would have undertaken the long (four months) and hazardous sailing ship voyage to South Australia. Being apparently well established in a business the safer option might have been to remain in Lincolnshire. However at the time of emigration he already had 5 sons to provide for, with the prospect of more children to come. The colonies were being vigorously promoted, for example through the Wakefield Scheme, for the opportunities they could offer young men. Another factor may have been the conviction of his nearest brother Albert Thomas (#9) to be transported to Tasmania. Descendants of Eliza, his youngest daughter, understand there was strong opposition from Maria’s parents to the emigration plan.

1987: At the suggestion of Emma HEAD (#165/3) family members donated to a fund to provide an alms bowl for the Halton Holegate parish church in memory of the family which had emigrated almost 150 years previously. The bowl was presented and dedicated at the Sunday service on 9 October 1988 with Emma and eight local parishioners present.

Frederick had a relationship with Ann MASON of Friskney in 1827

Frederick married Maria JOHNSON on 7 Jan 1828 in Skendleby Parish Church, Lincolnshire. Maria was born on 19 Jan 1808 in Halton Holegate, died on 26 Feb 1891 in Ninnes, South Australia at age 83, and was buried in Green’s Plains West cemetery. Frederick signed the marriage register “Frederic”, while Maria marked with a cross, Thomas Skipworth and Eliza Bell were the witnesses.

Frederick and Maria’s children were:

9. Albert Thomas SKIPWORTH (*John*², *John*¹) was born on 9 Oct 1805 in Halton Holegate,⁵ was baptised on 4 Oct 1807 in Halton Holegate,² died on 4 Jun 1879 in Melbourne, Australia at age 73, and was buried there on 6 Jun 1879.⁵

1828: witness at his brother Frederick's wedding.
1837: 4 March, sentenced to life imprisonment for highway robbery at Lincoln Assizes. He had previously been sentenced to 1 month for poaching. The record describes him as 31, a farm labourer, married with 2 children, and wife Elizabeth at "Alton". He was transported to Tasmania on the ship Elphinston sailed 29 May 1837.²⁷ His record after transportation shows him to have been a real rebel, getting lashes, solitary confinement, etc for being drunk and disorderly (several times), threatening one Charles Trew, absent without leave, drunk and disorderly several more times, etc.²⁸

1846: still in Tasmania but was eventually pardoned and moved to Victoria.
1879: died "of old age" described as a blacksmith aged 79.

Thomas married Elizabeth PENSON on 18 Jul 1829 in Little Steeping, Lincolnshire.² Thomas signed and Elizabeth marked the register, Augustus Frederic and Jemima were witnesses. Elizabeth was baptised on 28 Apr 1811 in Little Steeping, daughter of John and Ann,² died there on 1 Sep 1841 (death cert), aged 31, and was buried on 7 Sep 1841 at Little Steeping.¹²

Elizabeth Skipworth of Halton complained on 28 Feb 1839 that she had left the workhouse with "the itch." Her situation in 1837 was dire. Her husband had been sentenced to transportation, leaving her with a young family and no means of support. Not being a widow she could not legally remarry. Her father-in-law had been ordered to support his grandchildren but it is not clear if he complied - refer John's notes above.

She was back in Spilsby workhouse for the 1841 census which records: Elizabeth Skipworth 30 charwoman, with Thomas 10, William 9 and Ann 1 month. Thomas' age is hard to read. Elizabeth’s husband was long gone to Australia, so the baby would have been illegitimate. No baptisms for the boys Thomas and William have been found to prove their place in this family, but there is a gap in the family baptisms between 1830 and 1836. They are a reasonable fit with Thomas and William at Barton on Humber in later life, but it needs to be emphasized that there is no proof that this placement is correct. [No other Elizabeth Skipworth has been found to identify with the Elizabeth in Spilsby workhouse.]

Thomas and Elizabeth’s children were:

65 i. Lucy SKIPWORTH 1830 - before 1841 Refer to page 35
66 ii. Thomas SKIPWORTH 1833 - 1900 Refer to page 36
67 iii. William SKIPWORTH 1834 - 1921 Refer to page 36

69 v. George SKIPWORTH 1836 - 1836 Refer to page 37
70 vi. Albert Thomas SKIPWORTH 1837 - 1839 Refer to page 37

Thomas remarried Sarah RATLIFFE in 1854 in Victoria, Australia.¹⁶

10. Jemima SKIPWORTH (*John*², *John*¹) was born on 22 Sep 1807 in Halton Holegate,⁵ and was baptised there on 4 Oct 1807.⁵ This baptism is omitted from the register: the clerk having recorded Augustus as the daughter, was apparently confused by three siblings baptised together.

Jemima married Henry LAWSON on 24 Oct 1832 in St Wulfram, Grantham, both signed the register, Elizabeth Sands was a witness, possibly her grandmother.² Henry was born on 11 Jul 1807 in Grantham, and died in Dec 1842. (7 children)⁶

Jemima next married Robert TALBUT on 7 Aug 1848 in New Sleaford, Lincolnshire.⁶ Probably Jemima Talbot aged 92 died Sleaford RD 1899.¹

11. William SKIPWORTH (*John*², *John*¹) was born on 28 May 1810 in Halton Holegate,⁵ was baptised on 30 May 1810 in Halton Holegate,² and was buried there on 30 Oct 1831.⁴,⁵ Age 19 according to burial record, though he was 21. This error is surprising as his brother was parish clerk. There does not seem to be another William to claim this burial.
12. Owen SKIPWORTH (John ², John ¹) was born on 26 Jun 1812 in Halton Holegate,⁵ and baptised there on 2 Jul 1812 (unnamed in the register).² He was buried in Halton Holegate aged 79, on 14 Sep 1891.⁵

1841: age 25, ag lab Halton Fenside wife Mary, Lucy, Harriet

Owen married Maria WOODWARDS on 25 Nov 1833 in Halton Holegate,² John Skipworth a witness. Owen signed, Maria marked the register. Maria was born about 1814 and buried on 19 Feb 1835 age 21 in Halton Holegate.²

Owen next married Sarah BRADLEY also known as Mary, on 8 Sep 1835 in Halton Holegate.² Both parties marked the register, and his father John was a witness. Sarah was born about 1815 in E Keal, Lincolnshire and was buried age 68 on 14 Mar 1884 in Halton Holegate.²

1841: age 25, name Mary in census
1842: name Sarah on Dennis' baptism
1851: name Sarah in census
1871: age 56, name Mary, born Keal, living with Owen and grandson Dennis
1881: age 65, name Sarah, born E Keal, living with Owen and grandson Dennis
1884: age 68 in burial record, name Sarah
Owen's wife's name varied, sometimes Sarah, sometimes Mary.

Owen and Sarah's children were:

71   i.  Lucey SKIPWORTH 1837 -  Refer to page 37
72   ii. Harriet SKIPWORTH 1840 -  Refer to page 37

13. Maria SKIPWORTH (John ², John ¹) was born on 10 Jul 1814 in Halton Holegate,⁵ and was baptised there on 18 Jul 1814.²

Maria married William FOSTER on 19 May 1836 in Halton Holegate.² Both parties signed, the witnesses were John Skipworth, and John Skipworth, clerk (Maria's father and brother). They lived at Fenside, Halton Holegate in 1841.

14. Edwin SKIPWORTH (John ², John ¹) was born on 10 Jun 1817 in Halton Holegate,⁵ baptised there on 10 Aug 1817.² and buried there aged 18 on 1 Dec 1835.⁴ Edwin and his brother Dennis were buried within a week of each other.

15. Dennis SKIPWORTH (John ², John ¹) was born on 30 Aug 1819 in Halton Holegate,⁵ and buried there aged 16 on 8 Dec 1835.⁴
16. George SKIPWORTH (John 2, John 1) was born on 15 Mar 1822 in Halton Holegate, and baptised there on 23 Jun 1822. He was buried age 51 on 2 Dec 1873 in Bassingham, Lincolnshire, “a poor traveller - abode Lodging House, Bassingham” noted in Register.

- 1841: age 19, agricultural labourer at Halton Holegate
- 1871: age 49, born Spilsby, travelling hawker at Messingham
- 1873: licensed pedlar, living at Bassingham on the border Nottingham and Lincolnshire

George had a partner Mary in the 1871 census, but no marriage record has been found. Mary is recorded as born about 1827 in Bember (which is not a parish name) and is thought to be the Mary Skipworth aged 44 who was buried on 10 Nov 1871 in Louth.

- 1871: age 44 in census
- 1871: age 44 in death registration

George and Mary’s children were:

- 77 i. George SKIPWORTH 1862 - Refer to page 38
- 78 ii. Emma SKIPWORTH 1867 - Refer to page 38

Noted: A Sarah Skipworth, parents George and Mary, was baptised at Barton on Humber 11 Sep 1858 and received into the church a week later, suggesting an adult rather than a child of the present family. Refer to # 66 below.
John Skipworth of Halton Holegate Third Generation Part B

Third Generation Part B: John’s Grandchildren by his second son James

17. John SKIPWORTH of Spilsby (James 3, John 1) was baptised on 6 Sep 1818 in Holme next the sea, Norfolk, and was buried on 16 Aug 1899 in Spilsby, Lincolnshire.

John would have started to learn the milling and baking trade from his father James in Halton Holegate. He was age 16 in 1835 when his father remarried and switched to the poultry trade in Boston. At that time the bakery at Halton Holegate apparently passed to John’s older cousin Augustus Frederick, hence John’s transfer to a similar business at Spilsby. Refer to page 15 regarding the auction of the bakehouse in 1839.

1842: baker in Spilsby
1851: age 33, born Holme Norfolk, baker journeyman of Bull yard, Spilsby

Like his older brother John, Thomas started out in his father’s bakery trade, but was later brought into the poultry business where he probably supported his widowed stepmother.

1841: age 15, servant of a miller at Stickney
1851: age 26 unmarried born Steeping, baker of Burgh le Marsh. No baptism of Thomas found in Gt or Little Steeping c 1823, this is probably an error.

However, from a family history written by Mrs Beatty WILCOX (nee PEARCE) a grand-daughter of Eliza BARBARY, it is recorded : One of the sons of the family went to the Crimean War as ship’s captain with a load of soldiers and the family never heard of him again.
  Although John is not specifically named as being that son, we can account for the rest of the sons so that information would refer to John and the reasons for no other existing records about him. The Crimean war from 1854 to 1856 fits this story, but there is nothing to confirm he was the captain of the ship.

133 v. Alice Hilda SKIPWORTH 1860-1938, married Charles Oscar SMIDTH

Joel and Martha lived at Kyneton, Victoria, in the 1850’s. Their last child was born in 1863 but it seems that Joel had already left the family:

1862: Otago Police Gazette - SKIPWORTH Joel, alias JOHNSON, criminal suspect, desertion; Occupation Quarryman, Age: 30; Englishman, supposed to be in Canterbury, warrant received from Victoria for deserting wife and family at Kyneton.

Martha remarried bigamously in 1867 to a widower, Charles PELL, giving her name as Mary Ann, widow of Joel SKIPWORTH, though she was Martha Ann on the birth certificates of the three children of this marriage.

Joel had a child with Ellen WASHINGTON, possibly his sister-in-law:

135 i. Jane SKIPWORTH born 4 Aug 1858 Glenelg, SA

Joel’s second marriage, bigamous as were his third and fourth marriages, was to Emma BINGHAM on 28 Dec 1865 in St Lukes Church, Christchurch, NZ, claiming to be a bachelor. Emma was born about 1841 in Chester, Cheshire, UK.

1864: Emma Bingham, domestic servant, age 23 from Cheshire arrived Canterbury by Glenmark.
1865: Emma stated she was a spinster at her marriage to Joel, but on George’s birth certificate she was Emma Skipworth formerly Laborer with Bingham underneath - apparently she had been married previously.
1869: In Christchurch - death of baby Augustus Frederick, buried 30 May 1869
1870: Joel & Emma separated after producing 2 children, Joel returned to Australia, Emma took George aged 2 to England
1870: circa December, birth of William Lawton Skipworth in Tranmere, Cheshire. Emma must have been pregnant before she left New Zealand, assuming Joel was his father.
1871: Emma Skipworth age 30 born Liverpool and her 2 year old son George, living at Tranmere Cheshire with her parents William Lawton & Martha HALL, also present William Lawton Skipworth, grandson, 4 months born Tranmere, Cheshire.
1881: Emma Skipworth, age 40, shopkeeper and furniture dealer at Tranmere, living with her parents (father a publican and furniture dealer) and her son George.
1891: Emma age 40, housekeeper living with son George, her widowed father now retired, his son and two Hall grandchildren, as well as a boarder, at Birkenhead (parish of Christchurch)
1894: Mrs Skipworth, 33 Whetstone Lane Higher Tranmere, Birkenhead - Kelly's Dir
1901: Emma Skipworth not found in census, son George was married, and her father appears to have died in 1897. Emma may have married again in 1900 at age 59 to a cousin: An Emma Skipworth married either Wm Lawton Hall or James Dundas Davidson, in Chorlton Registration District. [There were a number of William Lawton Halls in the area.] As Joel was still alive in Australia, this would have been another bigamous marriage.

Joel and Emma’s children were:

136 i. Augustus Frederick SKIPWORTH 1867 - 1869 Christchurch, NZ
137 ii. George Bingham SKIPWORTH 1868 - 1947; born Christchurch, returned to UK, printer, married 1892 Jennie RIMMER who died aged 51 in 1920.

Brother and sister married brother and sister. Daniel farmed at Green's Plains until around 1887 when the family moved to Broken Hill. Daniel's brother Isaac had moved to Broken Hill 2 years earlier. The next move was to the Kalgoorlie/Boulder gold mining area of Western Australia in about 1897, presumably at the same time as brother Isaac and his family. Soon after the turn of the century Daniel, Susan and the younger children went from Boulder to Dardanup (Crooked Brook), some 16 miles south of Bunbury, and became farmers. By that time the elder children were married and remained in Kalgoorlie/Boulder.
A Daniel Skipworth travelled Melbourne to Lyttelton, NZ per Ringarooma in 1876 (miner age 31)

65. Lucy SKIPWORTH (Albert Thomas 9, John 2, John 1) was baptised on 30 Aug 1830 in Halton Holegate. She is assumed to have died before the 1841 census, as not recorded there. If Thomas and William are correctly placed as her siblings she must have died prior to 4 Mar 1837 when her father was said to have 2 children - see below.
Skipworths from Barton on Humber
The following two (#66 and #67) are thought to belong in this family because of their association with Halton Holegate. They are taken to be brothers because both settled at Barton on Humber and both were tilemakers.

With no baptisms we can only speculate as to their father. From their ages in later census they had to be present for the 1841 census, and the only Thomas and William not otherwise accounted for are the two boys with Elizabeth Skipworth at Spilsby Workhouse as described above. The difficulty with accepting #9 Albert Thomas as their father was the naming of his son Albert Thomas in 1837. If they already had a son Thomas, would they name a later baby Albert Thomas? This baby was born shortly after his father’s transportation and it is understandable that Elizabeth might want to name her baby for his father. Thomas is described as “married with 2 children” at the time of his conviction, before the birth of baby Albert Thomas.

66. Thomas SKIPWORTH (Albert Thomas 9, John 2, John 1) was born about 1833 at Halton Holegate, and died “aged 67” in 1900 in Barton on Humber.1 His name was usually “Thomas”, but it was “Thomas Albert” in his marriage and in Emily Martha’s baptism.

If my suggestions are correct Thomas and his brother would hardly have known their father, and being orphaned around the age of 10, would have had little knowledge of their origins. The workhouse guardians probably arranged apprenticeships for them, which took them far from their birthplace. In 1871 Thomas is said to be born at East Halton, not far from Barton on Humber, and it is not until 1881 that he gave the correct birthplace, which being unfamiliar to the census taker has been given a new spelling.

1841: age 10 at Spilsby Workhouse with Elizabeth (wife of #9 above)
1851: not found in census
1861: age 29, tilemaker at Barton on Humber, born Barton on Humber
1871: age 38, born East Halton, occupation illegible
1881: age 48, born Halton Howlgate, grocer and tile maker at Barton on Humber
1891: age 58, born Halton Howlgate, at Barton on Humber
1896: Kelly’s Directory - Grocer of Barton on Humber
1900: grocer of Barton on Humber, probate to Sarah widow £782 Reference 1900/565

Thomas married Sarah HOLLINGSWORTH in 1856 at Hull Registrar’s Office.1 She died aged 74 in 1912 in York RD.7 She was probably the Sarah SKIPWORTH baptised as an adult at Barton on Humber on 11 Sep 1858 (parents George / Mary) and received into the church a week later.2 In 1911 she was aged 73, born Barton on Humber, living in York.

Their children were:

207 i. Emily Martha SKIPWORTH b 1857 Barton on Humber mar Arthur Henry HARE, tilemaker in 1880. Executor for her mother in 1912.
208 ii. Thomas SKIPWORTH b 1859 Brigg RD parents guessed, not in 1861 census
209 iii. William SKIPWORTH 1862 - 1899 buried Barton on Humber with Hollingsworths, stonemason, married 1886 Maria CHAPMAN (no chn 1891)

67. William SKIPWORTH (Albert Thomas 9, John 2, John 1) was born about 1836 in Halton Holegate, and died aged 85 on 10 Jun 1921 in Hamilton, NSW.8

1841: age 9 at Spilsby Workhouse, with Elizabeth, wife of #9 above
1861: age 25, tilemaker at Sth Killingholme, born Holton, with wife, no children
1864: emigrated to Australia per Sir Robert Sale with wife Priscilla, George b1864, and Anne born abt 1858 (she could be Ann MAW registered Glanford Brigg Jun 1857. No Ann Skipworth birth found at this time). The listing shows William able to read, not write.
1921: death certificate gives his occupation - brickmaker, age 85 which agrees with previous statements of his birth year, parent’s names unknown as was the case when he married.8 The index states William H F Skipworth but the certificate includes no middle names or initials.13 His wife is correctly stated, with daughters Jane and Edith and a deceased son (George), but the age at marriage is a mistake. Annie Maw Skipworth is not mentioned, confirming that she was not a child of the marriage.
William married Priscilla MAW in 1859 in St Mary’s Barton on Humber, giving his father’s name as Haliday Skipworth. Sometimes when the father is unknown a name is invented to avoid leaving a gap, but on this occasion I believe William gave his maternal uncle’s name. Priscilla Maw was bapt 9 Oct 1837 at Barton on Humber and died in Australia in 1908.

William’s mother was Elizabeth, nee Penson, daughter of John and Ann, baptised on 28 Apr 1811 at Little Steeping. Her brother Haliday PENSON was baptised there on 25 Mar 1807, and appears to have lived until 1873 so may have assisted Elizabeth after her husband’s transportation.

William and Priscilla’s children were:

210 i. Anne Maw SKIPWORTH 1858 - 1944 NSW. Parents William / Priscilla in death index, but William would have been her adoptive father as she was born before the marriage. She may have been Ann, daughter of Jane Maw christened 6 Jun 1857 at Barton on Humber. The passenger list of the Sir Robert Sale appears to record (Scott) in brackets for Anne’s surname.

212 iii. Catherine Jane SKIPWORTH 1872 - Bathurst, NSW

213 iv. Edith Elizabeth SKIPWORTH 1879 - St George, NSW

Noted: George F Skipworth #199/2 reported meeting members of this family who believed they were distantly related to him.

68. Dennis SKIPWORTH (Albert Thomas 9, John 2, John 1) twin, was baptised on 3 May 1836 in Halton Holegate, died on 27 May 1836 in Halton Holegate, and was buried there, infant, on 29 May 1836.

69. George SKIPWORTH (Albert Thomas 9, John 2, John 1) twin, was baptised on 3 May 1836 in Halton Holegate, and was buried there, infant, on 22 May 1836.

70. Albert Thomas SKIPWORTH (Albert Thomas 9, John 2, John 1) was baptised on 9 Jul 1837 in Halton Holegate, and died on 23 Mar 1839 in Little Steeping at age 1. His father had been sentenced to transportation prior to his birth and his mother returned to Little Steeping, the parish of her birth.

71. Lucey SKIPWORTH (Owen 12, John 2, John 1) was baptised on 28 Nov 1837 in Halton Holegate. 1841: age 4 at home 1851: not at home, would have been 14 1861: age 24, born Halton, servant at Spilsby prison (not an inmate)

May be single mother of William Charles Button SKIPWORTH bapt Halton Holegate 25 Nov 1856, name Button from birth registration, not in baptism.

72. Harriet SKIPWORTH (Owen 12, John 2, John 1) was baptised Feb 1840 in Halton Holegate. 1841: age 1 1851: age 11 at home with parents Halton Holegate 1861: age 21 housemaid at Wainfleet

73. Dennis SKIPWORTH (Owen 12, John 2, John 1) was baptised on 8 Jul 1842 at Halton Holegate, and was buried, age 22 of Thorpe, on 12 Mar 1865 in Halton Holegate. 1851: age 9 at home with parents

Dennis married Emma HIDES in 1862 in Spilsby RD, and had a child:

214 i. Dennis SKIPWORTH 1863 - 1924
